

Reduced Fares

Ride as much as you need for $28/month — a 72% discount

- Older adults 65+ or on Medicare
- Youth 7–17 or high school/GED
- People with disabilities
- People with qualifying incomes
- Veterans or active-duty military

$1.40 | 2½ Hours

On your first tap, you'll be charged $1.40, and you can ride for 2½ hours.

$2.80 | Day Pass

If you tap again after 2½ hours you will be charged another $1.40, but your fare will be good for the rest of the day because you've earned a Day Pass.

$28 | Month Pass

After you tap enough times to spend $28, ride the rest of the calendar month for free because you've earned a Month Pass.

See the complete list of fares at trimet.org/hop/fares

We're Here for You

Text or call
503-238-7433 (RIDE)

Customer Service
7:30 a.m.–5:30 p.m.
trimet.org/help

Report Security Concerns
24 hours a day
trimet.org/report

Interpretation is available in other languages.

Text or call 911 to report an immediate threat or serious crime.

240668 • 2/25

Reduced Fares

For youth, older adults,
people with disabilities,
people with qualifying incomes,
veterans and active-duty military

TRIMET
How life moves®

Ride for Less

Save up to 72% with TriMet's Reduced Fares

Older adults age 65+ or on Medicare

If you're age 65 or older or on Medicare, you qualify to use TriMet's reduced Honored Citizen fare. You don't need to apply in advance to use the Honored Citizen fare. Just keep your government-issued photo ID with proof of age handy.

Learn more at trimet.org/hc

Youth 7-17 or high school/GED

If you're age 7-17, a student in grades 9-12, or studying for your GED, you qualify to use TriMet's reduced Youth fare. You don't need to apply in advance to use the Youth fare. Just keep your photo ID with proof of age handy. ID is required when boarding for ages 15-17 and high school/GED.

Note: Children 6 and under ride for free with a paying passenger.

Learn more at trimet.org/youth

People with disabilities

If you have a verifiable mental or physical disability, you qualify to use TriMet's reduced Honored Citizen fare. You must apply for and receive a personalized photo ID Hop card before using the Honored Citizen fare.

Apply at trimet.org/disability

People with qualifying incomes

If you meet the income requirements, you qualify to use TriMet's reduced Honored Citizen fare. You must apply for and receive a personalized photo ID Hop card before using the Honored Citizen fare.

Apply at trimet.org/income

Veterans, active-duty military and reservists

If you're a veteran, active-duty member of the military or reservist, you qualify to use TriMet's reduced Honored Citizen fare. You must apply for and receive a personalized photo ID Hop card before using the Honored Citizen fare.

Apply at trimet.org/military

Using your Honored Citizen Hop card with photo ID

1. First, load money on your card.
2. Then, tap the green Hop reader every time you board a bus or train. You won't be charged every time you tap, but your tap is your proof of payment.

Learn more at myhopcard.com